Parent Advocate Accepted to the National Speaker Association

Southfield, MI - The National Speakers Association (NSA), the leading organization for Experts who Speak accepts Brenda A. Jenkins as Professional member of the Association!

Congratulations to the newest member of the 4000 membership National Speaker Association, Ms. Brenda A. Jenkins.

Brenda is one who loves learning and could not resist the opportunity to hone her speaking skills through the NSA ProTrack program. The experience heightened her desire to learn and fortified her ability to craft the gift of speaking and speech making into a powerful communication tool.

Her spirit has led her to speak out and be a voice for parents, grandparents and the community whenever the opportunity presents itself.

Brenda's partnership with NSA-MI has led her to meet so many helpful and selfless people who are always encouraging her to step out of the ordinary into the extra-ordinary using her powerful speaking skills.

Jenkins is a professional motivational speaker with a heart for people. She gets right to the heart of any issue while delivering talks on: Effective Communications & Relationships, Team Building, Responsibility and Accountability, Conflict Resolution, Parenting Tools, Listening-Does Anybody Hear Me? The mother to four and grandparent to thirteen, Brenda is well versed in problem solving, organizational and interpersonal skills.

Her life goal is "taking her skills to help others advance in their goals."

Brenda plans to not stop with this accomplishment, she will be in attendance at the annual NSA Conference in Orlando, Florida to meet with others in the speaking association and glean more knowledge and comprehension on what makes a great speaker. She will not rest until she has captured the highest proficiency that furthers her to help build stronger communities.

Ms. Jenkins states, "I cannot help but be who I am at all times. My greatest desire is to make a difference in the lives of my children, grandchildren, family and community. "

NSA's 4,000 members include experts in a variety of industries and disciplines, who reach audiences as trainers, educators, humorists, motivators, consultants, authors and more. Since 1973, NSA has provided resources and education designed to advance the skills, integrity and value of its members and speaking profession through strict code of ethics.
